1. Most of the departments of the GAI, including the VP (Administrative Police), no longer have a Polit-Kultur (PK) director as deputy to the department head. There is now in most departments no special deputy assigned to the director, the chief of Referat of the department assuming the deputy's duties. *
2. The Schulung (Training) department of the GAI has been dissolved. There is now only a Schulungsreferent (training specialist) with the individual departments.
3. The former head of the Schulung department, Max Zaspel, has been appointed chief of the Border Police department. The Border Police units have now been attached to the Landespolizeibehörde (state police), like the Kriminalpolizei, Schutzpolizei and the VP.
4. It is anticipated that the Administrative Police department will shortly move into the building housing the Bureau of Missing Persons on Kanonierstr., Berlin-Mitte, to be joined by other departments, e.g., fire brigade and part of the Intendantur (Supply). Concomitantly, the Kriminalpolizei is expected to move to Seckendorffstr., leaving in Wilhelmsruh only the headquarters of the Bereitschaften.

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment: This appears to be proof of the waning importance of the PK.
